Kauto Star Restaurant

An all-new restaurant for 2016, named after one of the most iconic horses to ever compete on the track.

The Haydock Park legend won the Betfair Chase on four occasions in 2006, 2007, 2009 and 2011. Kauto Star's affinity with the racecourse was recognised with a statue erected at the venue in his honour.

Located on the first floor of the Tommy Whittle stand, and set in a relaxed and informal atmosphere, you can enjoy excellent views of the Winning Post and convenient proximity to the Parade Ring. The easy-going atmosphere is perfect for a more informal visit and you can enjoy an exhilarating view of the action on the track.

Package includes:

- Course facing restaurant with access to shared viewing balcony
- Reserved car parking (one pass per four guests)
- Waitress service with a cash bar
- Three course buffet on Grade One fixtures and Music Nights
- Two course buffet on Premier fixtures or Weekday Winners
- Private tote facility

Note: This restaurant will operate a shared table policy on Grade One fixtures and Music Nights.

Dress code: Smart/casual. No faded, distressed or ripped jeans. No trainers or sportswear allowed.

LUXURIOUS DINING AND STUNNING VIEWS

Dress code: Strictly jacket and tie for all gentlemen and smart dress for ladies and children.

Park Suite Restaurant

Located in the Makerfield Stand and offering an amazing view of the action, from the final furlong up to the Winning Post, Park Suite is the ideal choice for private parties or functions – with the capacity to offer bookings for up to 400 guests.

Combining great racing with a lavish dining experience, the excitement of the day is easily accessed from your table. We know how to create memories that last longer than your day with us, thanks to our first class service and superb quality dining.
